RICHMOND AND DANVILLE BONDHOLDERS. The new address of the Baltimore committee of underlying bondholders of the Richmond and Danville Railroad was completed yesterday and sent to New York for approval of day and sent to New York for approval of Gen. Louis Fitzgerald, one of the committee, before it will be issued. The principal new point of the address is an invitation to holders of all classes of Richmond and Danville bonds to deposit them and strengthen the movement for the general protection of the honded interest of the system. There is much apprehension among the bondhoders in Baltimere that Drexel, Morgan & Co., in reorganizing the Richmond Terminal system, will scale down every class of Danville bonds to see something for the common and preferred stockholders of the Richmond Terminal. A strong and effective combination of the bondholders would enable them to obtain a recognition in the reorganization equal to a recognition in the reorganization equal to the market value of their securities.
